Year 3 trip to Unicorn Theatre

Last week, Year 3 went to an exciting performance of 'The Nutcracker and the Mouse King' at the Unicorn Theatre.

"I liked the magical land with flavoured lolly pops like strawberry, lemon, vanilla and chocolate." - Olasubomi, Spain Class.

"I liked it when the big Mouse King with all his heads popped out of the hole. I liked it when the Nutcracker told the girl to come into the toy box and it led to a magical land." Liam, Spain Class.

Year 2 Trip to Nanak Dabar

On Tuesday 2nd of December, both Year 2 classes went on a trip to a Gurdwara in Southgate. A Gurdwara is a place of worship for Sikhs. We were greeted by friendly people who manage the Gurdwara and were taken into the main prayer hall. We were told the basics of the religion and the main beliefs of Sikh people. After talking about Sikhism, the priest of the Gurdwara talked about Guru Nanak and his life and all the places he travelled to. We then had lunch and were treated to langar (food), which was just delicious! Hopefully the other classes at Northwold will have the pleasure of visiting the Gurdwara.

Wednesday Coffee Mornings

Please join Mr Braune on Wednesday 10th December at 9.00am. The focus is on the new Computing Curriculum and, in particular, how we are teaching young children to write computer code and how you can help them at home. Join him in the world of Angry Birds and Flappy Birds. It's easier than you think!
