"We learnt about the five pillars of Islam." – Olasubomi

"We enjoyed observing the decorations in the mosque." – Talha

Year 3 trip – Regent’s Park Mosque

As part of their study of Islam this term, Spain and Nigeria class went on a trip to London Central Mosque on Tuesday. They were able to look around the Mosque and understand why it is an important place of worship for Muslims. The children enjoyed the trip thoroughly.

"We enjoyed looking at a Quran. It was handwritten beautifully"- Alyonne

Dance Club Assembly

On Wednesday, the Infants and Juniors were treated to a dance performance in Assembly. The Dance Club, led by Ms Artlett, performed a number of fantastic routines.

After School Clubs

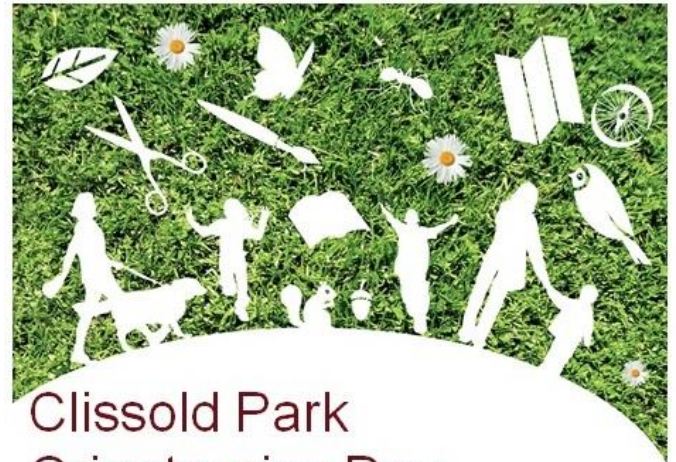

Nearly all the After School Clubs are full. But there are still a few places left in Yoga, for Key Stage 2 children on Tuesday, and African Drumming on Wednesday. Please collect the form for any of these clubs from the Office and hand it in to Cynthia.

Wednesday Coffee Morning

Our next coffee morning is on Wednesday 28th January at 9.00am. One of the school's governors will be talking to you about their current work for the school's Governing Body. We look forward to seeing you then.

Class Coffee Mornings

The Class Coffee mornings are a great success. It's a great chance to meet your child's class teacher and find out about what's going on in their class.
