Year 4 Create Project

From 15th January to 26th January 2018 Year 4 participated in an exciting project with CREATE, which involved various workshops to teach pupils about finance. Hackney Gazette have written an article about the project. Please visit the following link to read the article:

<http://www.hackneygazette.co.uk/news/education/northwold-primary-school-students-explore-world-of-finance-through-devised-theatre-1-5366236>.

"I really enjoyed the create workshop. James, Carrie, Jess and Tim were very nice. I love getting into different shapes. We played lots of fun games. It was a very interesting workshop. If I could choose if I want to do it again I would choose to do it a second time; and again and again." Mark

"The first day that I was with Create it was very fantastic, amazing and enjoyable, it was the best. We played different games and wrote a script which was very good for us to do. James, Carrie, Tim and Jess made us play the best games ever. With the Create team we learnt words that had do with money like spend, save, credit, debt and others." Bartek

"The day we first had the workshop I enjoyed the games. I like learning the new words and a lot about banks. I learnt about money which was very interesting. It was amazing, now I know how to use money properly. I love it so much." Aisha

Year 5 Trip to National Theatre

"On Monday I went to the National Theatre to watch Pinocchio. I enjoyed it. I want to know how they made all the props, like the heads for some of the characters, such as the puppet maker and the fairy. I liked the part where his nose got bigger when he lied, but I would like to know how a long wooden stick came out of his nose." Oliver

"The play had normal people playing the characters and some people controlling massive puppets. This I enjoyed very much and then there was the effect of Pinocchio's nose growing, but still looking like the actors real nose – that was one of the wonderful parts of the play." Bethany

"The trip to Waterloo National Theatre was very good. My favorite part was when Pinocchio found his father. Pinocchio believed that he could never become real. He went on many adventures to different places. Pinocchio also found out that when he lies his nose grows longer and longer." Temar
